DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of group, I, claims 1-4 and 11-16 in the reply filed on 9/21/04 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the search for the apparatus should also include a search for the method claims. This is not found persuasive because the apparatus can be used to make plastic article.
2. In addition to the election, applicant was required to elect species Ia or Ib. Applicant only elects group I, but did not indicate which species. Examiner had called applicant on November 3, 2004, to ask for an election. An oral confirmation was made and Species Ia, claims 1-4, was elected.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Suzuki et al (US 4,497,359).

As to claim 1 and 4, Suzuki et al disclose a pressure responsive mold for casting, wherein the mold having a fixed sidewall (20), said fixed sidewall defining a portion of an interior mold surface (30), a retractable member (13), said retractable member having a face for defining a further portion of an interior mold surface said face and said fixed sidewall forming a cavity having a casting volume, an entry port for introducing a molten metal that expands during a solidification phase into the cavity in the mold, and a retaining member (36), said retaining member maintaining said interior mold surface and said face in position during an injection of a molten material therein, said retaining member capable of retracting in response to an increase in the cavity pressure caused by solidification to displace the face relative to the sidewall to thereby form a solidification cavity wherein the face and the fixed sidewall contain a solidification volume that is greater than the casting volume (figures 1-3), since the retaining member (36) can be moved forward and backward.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 2 and 3 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Suzuki et al (US '359).

Suzuki et al disclose the claimed invention above, but lacks the mentioning of a spring. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time applicant's invention was made to replace the plunger (36) with a spring member, since the spring is functionally equivalent to the plunger (36), and wherein the spring is much cheaper.
